Andrew, as you know my firm represents Henry as the Sorrento CEO and our directors in those roles in the Sorrento bankruptcy. It is an ethical violation for you to contact our clients, and we will raise it with the court if you do so again.

Andrew,

The board designated Mo with the power to run the Sorrento bankruptcy cases and Mo has been doing so, so I'm copying Mo and Caroline as this privilege question should involve Mo. We also believe that it would be improper for the board to seek to override Mo with respect to waiver of the attorney client privilege. Even if the board were the sole party involved with respect to waiver of the privilege, we also do not believe the board would do so.

Best,
Justin

Subject: [EXT] Sorrento—Investigation of Latham

--- External Email ---

Henry,

We have been investigating Latham, its fees, and its relationship with Liz Freeman, who is now been disclosed to be Judge Jones's lover.

We noted that there are time entries on Latham's fee application including Liz, Freeman, and we have issued discovery request to Latham, and the other professionals to produce all communications and documents relating to Liz Freeman, who has no apparent role in this case.

We hereby request that the Board of Directors of Sorrento waive any privileges relating to any communications with a Liz Freeman, so that we can all see those communications, including text messages, and determine whether there was any inappropriate conduct relating to Judge Jones.

We asked that you convene a board meeting on Monday to memorialize this waiver.

Thank you very much.
